

Unit 1 Week 1 - First Day Jitters

Strategy - Analyze Story Structure

The main parts of a story are the characters, the setting and a plot with a beginning, middle and end. This is called _____. by identifying the parts of a story and seeing how they fit together, a reader can understand what and why it happens.

Skill - Plot Development

Explain

Authors develop the plots in made-up stories through the characters, setting, and story events. _____ are the people in the story, and their actions move the plot along. The _____ is when and where the story takes place. A _____ is made up of the events in a story. A plot has a beginning, middle and end.

ELL - Academic Vocabulary

Draw pictures to illustrate the meaning of the skill words. For plot draw three boxes and write beginning, middle and end in them. For characters, draw a simple house and a tree.